

The Springfield Historical Society
proudly presents
Gary Robinson in Concert

On Thursday evening, April 9, the Springfield Historical Society will welcome back an outstanding musician and local resident, Gary Robinson. Robinson began his classical guitar studies in 1972 with Abloniz in Milan, Italy. Upon his return to the U.S., he began his teaching and performing career. He has been a member of the Colby Sawyer faculty for 40 years. During his performing career he has shared the stage with contemporary artists Leo Kottke, Mose Allison, Judy Collins, Mary Travers and John Sebastian. Gary has performed extensively on the college circuit and every Spring returns to Ticino to play in his beloved Malcontone, Switzerland. His love of music extends from the Renaissance to the Latin Bossa nova to the blues. Our program will also include a Lute Suite by Leopoldo Silvius Weiss, Sonata Dresden #5. Our meeting will be held at 7:00 pm at the Town Meetinghouse, 23 Four Corners Rd in Springfield, NH. Refreshments will be served as people arrive and the program will begin at 7:15. The Meetinghouse is handicapped accessible and our program is free and open to the public. We invite you to join us and bring your friends to enjoy this incredible guitarist in a truly wonderful evening of musical entertainment! For further information or directions, call Donna Denniston at (603) 496-5462.
