"A Walk Back in Time: The Secrets of Cellar Holes"

Adair Mulligan, Guest Speaker

On Thursday evening, January 9, 2014, the Historical Society and NH Humanities Council will feature a very special guest, Adair Mulligan. The program will begin at 7:00 pm and will be held in the lower level of the Libbie Cass Memorial Library at 2750 Main St, Springfield, NH.

Adair Mulligan has a runaway curiosity about the natural and cultural history of northern New England. Author of "Gunstock Parish, a History of Gilford, NH", she has also contributed to "Proud to Live Here in the Connecticut River Valley"; "Where the Great River Rises, An Atlas of the Upper Connecticut River", and "Beyond the Notches: Stories of Place in New Hampshire's North Country". Executive Director of the Connecticut River Joint Commissions, she holds a Masters Degree from Smith College. Adair resides in Lyme, NH. Our program will be informative and entertaining and a question and answer period will follow.

The program is open to the public and admission is free. Refreshments will be served and provided by Mrs. Alice Nulsen. Libbie Cass Library is handicapped accessible with parking available behind the building at the lower level.

Call Donna Denniston at 496-5462 for further information or for directions.
