

The Springfield Historical Society
presents
“New England Quilts and the Stories They Tell”
A NH Humanities Presentation

On Thursday evening, October 12, 2017, the Springfield Historical Society is delighted to present a very special guest speaker, Pamela Weeks. As Binney Family Curator of the New England Quilt Museum, she works with many different quilters, collectors, and institutions in planning exhibits for the museum and researching the quilts in the museum collection. In 2013 she published her first book on Civil War quilts made for soldiers. Our meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the Town Meetinghouse, 23 Four Corners Rd, Springfield, NH and is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served as people gather and our program will begin at 7:15. We are calling on all the quilters out there to join us for this occasion and to bring your favorite quilt so you can hear its story. The meetinghouse is handicapped accessible and we hope you will join us for this great program. Call Donna Denniston (603) 496-5462 for further information.
