

SCHOLARSHIPS

Local scholarship opportunities for Springfield residents

Springfield Historical Society

This scholarship was established by the Springfield Historical Society to be awarded to a Springfield high school senior; a present Springfield resident attending a school of further education; or a Springfield resident who has completed the Kearsarge Adult Diploma Program

- Application forms may be obtained from the Guidance Office at KRHS; the Springfield Town Office; or by downloading from www.historicalspringfieldnh.org
- Check the website for criteria and deadlines.

Libbie A Cass Library Scholarship

The Celeste Klein Scholarship was established to provide some financial support to Springfield residents who are furthering their education by the Trustees of the Libbie A. Cass Memorial Library.

- Applications may be obtained from the guidance office at KRHS or at the Libbie A. Cass Memorial Library or on our website at www.libbielcass.weebly.com
- The applicant must be a resident of Springfield with concrete plans for further education.
- Check the website for criteria and deadlines.

Eastman Charitable Foundation

The Eastman Charitable Foundation (ECF) is offering three scholarships to college-bound high school seniors living in Springfield, Enfield or Grantham who will be majoring in Environmental Science or a related field.

- Information and the application are available at www.ecfnh.org
- Please be sure to read the selection criteria and submission directions carefully
- Check the website for criteria and deadlines.

Grantham Garden Club

Applications for financial scholarships are now being accepted by the Grantham Garden Club for New Hampshire residents preparing for a career in horticulture, landscaping, forestry, agriculture, plant sciences, or environmental sciences at a post-secondary institution.

- Information and the application are available at granthamgardenclub.org
- Individual must be enrolled or about to enroll part-time or full-time in an accredited college, community college, or technical school in one of the stated fields.
- Preference is given to applicants with clear career goals and past experience (volunteer or paid) In their chosen field.