Benedict Arnold,
Patriot (and Traitor)
April 11 7:00 PM

We all “know” the story of Benedict Arnold, the American Revolutionary War general who fought for the Continental Army but then defected to the British. But before then, Arnold risked his life and fortune for American freedom in courageous exploits, when the dream of independence was at its most fragile. George Morrison will take you on a journey through New England, Canada, and New York tracing the complex story of this infamous American icon.

A free program provided by a grant from the New Hampshire Humanities Council

Springfield Meeting House, 23 Four Corners Rd.
